- Aldgate & Allhallows Foundation

The majority of the Foundation's support for individuals is distributed each year through bursaries for undergraduate students studying at Queen Mary University, London. However, grants for students studying other courses or at other colleges or universities can sometimes be considered to individuals meeting the criteria outlined below.

Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible to be considered for a grant, individuals must be:

under the age of 30 on the day their course or year of study begins, and permanently resident in London Borough of Tower Hamlets or the City of London for at least the past three years, and from a low-income background, and studying full-time in Further, Higher or Postgraduate education on a course of at least one year in length that will result in the awarding of a recognised qualification.

Individuals from a refugee background are welcome to apply, as long as they have been granted either Indefinite Leave to Remain in the UK or full Refugee status. Individuals with time limited leave to remain are not eligible to apply.

Purpose and Length of Grants

Grants can be made for education costs (books, equipment, travelling costs) maintenance (living costs) and/or payment of tuition fees.

- 2024 Guru Nanak Social Mobility Bar Scholarships

It is with great pleasure that Mukhtiar Singh and the Sikh Education Council launch the 2024 Guru Nanak Social Mobility Scholarships.

The aims of the scholarships are to improve social mobility in professions perceived to be out of reach for those from poorer background and to encourage a wider understanding of Sikh jurisprudence by considering whether society may learn from Sikhism for the benefit of us all. The scholarship has run since 2018.

In celebration of the 555th birthday of Guru Nanak, the founder of Sikhism, this year's format is different to previous scholarships although the criteria remains the same.

This year's scholarship will not take the form of an essay. Instead, applicants must make a 5 to 10 minute video presentation on the question, "Why I should be awarded a Guru Nanak Social Mobility Bar Scholarship?"

The scholarships are open to all aspiring barristers from working class background, regardless of faith or non-faith.
